To Whom It May Concern Certificate Request - Engineering Firm Classification

This service aims to issue a "To Whom It May Concern Certificate" for a classified Firm or "under classification" engineering facility, where the owner/representative of the engineering facility submits a request to issue the certificate and pays the fees, if any, and then the system issues the approved certificate for the engineering Firm and deposits it in the Firm's publications portfolio engineering so that it can be printed afterwards.

This is done by going directly to the search screen in the TAMM platform and searching for the service under the name "Request Issuance of To whom It May Concern Certificate"
